Finding York County Divorce Files

211 Research Guide

Most Recent Update:
May 2017

Divorce files are typically filed at the county or district courthouse where the divorce hearing took place. They may include the petition for divorce, affidavits, the degree nisi and the decree absolute (also referred to as the judgement absolute). Some files may also include examinations, documents relating to child custody, copies of marriage certificates and photographs of the people involved. For divorces occurring outside of York County, see Research Guide 210: Finding Divorce Files in Ontario.

Getting Started

Step 1: What are you looking for?

A divorce occurring prior to 1930?

We do not have these records. Until 1930, only the Federal Parliament could grant a divorce in Ontario through a Resolution or an Act of Parliament. Couples had to have a private member's bill (a bill that a Member of Parliament presented to the House of Commons) requesting that their divorce be granted.

All divorces granted by the Federal Parliament are indexed. Click here to access the index on the Library and Archives Canada website. Divorces granted between 1867 and 1930 are also indexed in a book titled Index to Canadian Parliamentary Divorces, 1867-1930, by J. Brian Gilchrist and Nancy J. Duffy. This book is available in the Archives of Ontario's Reading Room and in major public libraries.

Resolutions and Acts of the Federal Parliament have been published, and most major libraries should hold a copy of them; click here to access the Library and Archives Canada website for more information. For a certified copy of the Resolution or Act of Parliament for a divorce (needed for legal purposes), you must contact Office of the Law Clerk and Parliamentary Counsel:

Senate of Canada
1310-40 Elgin Street
Ottawa ON K1A 0A4 – Telephone: 613-992-2416

A certified Decree Nisi or Decree Absolute for a divorce started between 1931-1980?

Do you just need a certified copy of the legal document that makes a divorce final? If so, please proceed to STEP 2. For divorces occurring outside of York County, but still in Ontario, please see Research Guide 210: Finding Divorce Files in Ontario.

A certified Decree Nisi or Decree Absolute for a divorce started between 1981-1985?

Starting in 1981, divorces for the Regional Municipality of York were processed by the Newmarket courthouse. Divorces for Metropolitan Toronto (now the City of Toronto) were still processed by the Toronto courthouse.

Do you only need a certified copy of the legal document that makes a divorce final?

For divorces that occurred in Toronto, please proceed to STEP 2.

For divorces that occurred in the Regional Municipality of York, please contact:

Civil Office
Superior Court of Justice

An entire Divorce File for a divorce started between 1931-1980?

Divorce files may include the petition for divorce, affidavits, the degree nisi and the decree absolute. Some files may also include examinations, documents relating to child custody, copies of marriage certificates and photographs of the people involved.

Is this what you are looking for? If so, please proceed to STEP 3. For divorces occurring outside of York County, but still in Ontario, please see Research Guide 210: Finding Divorce Files in Ontario.

An entire Divorce File for a divorce started between 1981-1985?

For City of Toronto divorces files, please proceed to STEP 3.

For divorces occurring in the Regional Municipality of York, please contact:

STEP 2: Obtaining a Certified Decree Nisi or Decree Absolute

The Archives' divorce files are stored at an off-site storage location. It may take up to 14 business days to retrieve, copy and certify a Decree Absolute. There is a $33.00 fee (plus HST) for certification. The certified copy can be mailed to you or picked up in person.

If you know the file number, court location (town), year and the names of the two parties, click here to send an email to the Archives of Ontario and submit your request, or call 416-327-1600 (toll free 1-800-668-9933 in Ontario). We will contact you regarding payment once the document is ready.

If you do not have the file number, court location, year and the names of the two parties, please proceed to STEP 3.

STEP 3: Gathering the required information to find a divorce file

For Archives' staff to retrieve a file for you, you need to be able to provide the file number, court location, year and the names of the two parties.

To find the File Number, Court Location and Year for a divorce:

For divorces started between 1931 and 1985:

After 1930, the Supreme Court of Ontario has had the power to grant a divorce. The Archives of Ontario holds all 1931–1980 York County divorce files and all 1981-1985 City of Toronto divorce files. An index is available on microfilm in the Archives of Ontario Reading Room up until 1978.

Entries in the index are arranged first by year, then by the initial letter of the surname, and then by the exact date that the Decree Absolute/Judgement Absolute was granted. See Table 1 listed below.

If you find the couple's name, record the:

- file number and year that the divorce case began from the "Writ. No." column (e.g., 1234/70 = divorce file # 1234 of year 1970); and
- date that the Decree Absolute/Judgement Absolute was granted.

Once you have the file number, court location and year, please proceed to STEP 4.

If you do NOT find the couple's name:

It may be because they were not divorced in York County. To check if they ever petitioned for a divorce in York County, see If You Can't Find a York County Divorce Record, in the Records section of this research guide. If the divorce occurred elsewhere in Ontario, consult Research Guide 210: Finding Divorce Files in Ontario.

There is also a small possibility that the divorce was granted through a resolution or act of Parliament. See the section on pre-1930 divorces above for more information.

For divorces started between July 1968 and the present:

Contact the Central Registry of Divorce Proceedings (CRDP). This is a Canada-wide record of divorce proceedings filed in a Canadian Court from July 1968. Click here to access the Department of Justice website and complete a search request, providing your full name at birth and birth date as well as the name and date of birth of your former spouse, the date of marriage and the approximate date of your divorce and mail it to the address below.

Should the CRDP identify a record matching the information provided, it can supply the number of the courthouse where the divorce took place, and the file number and year that you need to get your divorce file. Please note that the CRDP cannot confirm the status of a divorce proceeding or provide any legal document. Contact for the CDRP:

Department of Justice
Central Registry of Divorce Proceedings
284 Wellington Street
Ottawa, Ontario, Canada K1A 0H8
613-957-4519

Once you obtain this information from the CRDP, proceed to STEP 4.

For divorce started after 1980, contact the local court house. Please see Table 2 in the Records section of this guide.

Step 4: Ordering a 1931–1985 Divorce File at the Archives of Ontario

Once you have the file number, the year when the divorce case began, the date it was granted and the county or district where the divorce took place, you have the information to order a divorce file.

The Archives' divorce files are stored at an off-site location. It takes a minimum of one business day to retrieve them. Please note that original files can be viewed only in the Archives' Reading Room in Toronto. Copies and certification requests can be ordered by telephone if you know which documents are required.

To request a divorce file, contact the Archives of Ontario; contact information appears at the end of this guide.

The Records

If You Can't Find a York County Divorce Record

To find out if either spouse ever petitioned for a divorce in York County, follow these steps:

For divorces started between 1931 and May 1968:

Step 1: an index to all York County Supreme Court Civil Actions is available in the Archives of Ontario Reading Room. See Table 2 below for the microfilm list.

For the years 1930 to 1968, the entries on the microfilm reel are arranged in alphabetical order, based on the first letter of the plaintiff's surname. In later years, the names are placed in indented columns in alphabetical order, based on the first vowel that occurs after the first letter of the name, and then by the file number. This index includes all Superior Court civil actions, not just divorces. It is easy to find divorce cases because, in most (but not all) cases, the "Plaintiff" and "Defendant" columns will have the same surname.

Table 2: Court of Chancery and Supreme Court Central Office Indexes to Civil Actions and City Suits – series RG 22-5809 (available on microfilm in the Archives' Reading Room)

Year Case Started	Microfilm Reel
1930-1932	MS 2615
1933-1935	MS 2616
1936-1938	MS 2617
1939-1942	MS 2618
1943-1946	MS 2619
1947-1950	MS 2620
1951-1953	MS 2621
1954-1956	MS 2622
1957-1958	MS 2623
1959-1960	MS 2627
1961-1962	MS 4088
1963-1964	MS 4088

Year Case Started	Microfilm Reel
1965-1966	MS 4089
1967	MS 4089
1968	MS 4709

Step 2: if you find the divorce case, write down the file number (located at the right of the entry), and the year (located at the top of the page).

Step 3: these files are stored off-site. It takes at least one business day to retrieve them. Fill out and give the reference staff a Records Request Slip for RG 22-5800 Supreme Court Central Office Action Files, noting the file number, year and the names of the parties involved.
