

Active Archives

Bringing Ontario's History Online

Join us Thursday, April 6 from 1:30-4:00 p.m. at the Archives of Ontario for an OHS symposium. "Active Archives: Bringing Ontario's History Online" will feature a series of presentations exploring new pathways and initiatives in the delivery and preservation of historical materials in Ontario.

Dee Psaila - Manager, Digitization & Operations, Information Privacy and Archives, Archives of Ontario

"Share the Load: Digitization Partnerships at the Archives of Ontario"

Daniel Dishaw - Communications & Outreach Coordinator, Ontario Historical Society
Hassam Munir - York University History Student & OHS Placement Student

"Public History on Social Media: Reaching New Audiences"

Sarah McCabe - Project Manager, Ontario Historical Society

"Bringing Ontario History Journal Online: 117 Years of Scholarship"

Alison Norman, PhD - Research Advisor, Ministry of Indigenous Relations & Reconciliation
Research Associate, Frost Centre for Canadian & Indigenous Studies, Trent U

"Indigenous History Online: Research, Writing & Preservation"

Admission is FREE, but space is limited!

Complimentary refreshments will be provided courtesy of the Archives of Ontario

THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 2017

1:30 PM - 4:00 PM

George Spragge Classroom, Archives of Ontario
134 Ian MacDonalld Blvd, Toronto, ON

the Ontario Historical Society

OHS@ONTARIOHISTORICALSOCIETY.CA

ONTARIOHISTORICALSOCIETY.CA

/ONTARIOHISTORICALSOCIETY

@ONTARIOHISTORY

Hosted by:

Archives
of Ontario

Archives
publiques
de l'Ontario

THE THRILL OF DISCOVERY
LE FRISSON
DE LA DÉCOUVERTE

ontario.ca/archives

#ACTIVEARCHIVES