THE RECORDS

Starting in 1793, districts and municipalities in Upper Canada were mandated to conduct annual censuses. Colony-wide censuses were carried out in Canada West (current-day Ontario, south of the Muskoka and Haliburton areas) in 1842, 1851-1852 and 1861. The federal government has conducted a Canada-wide census every tenth year since 1871 (every fifth year since 1956).

Please note: Census records after 1911 are not available to the public.

Pre-1851 Census Records

- Pre-1851 census records often only contain statistical information with no names listed or list only the names of family heads. Except for Talbot District, these censuses are on microfilm and available on self-service reels in the Archives' Reading Room and through the Microfilm Interloan Service. For more detailed descriptions, click on the highlighted links:
 - District of Gore fonds \(F 1679\)
 - District of Johnstown fonds \(F 1721\)
 - District of Newcastle fonds \(F 1800\)
 - District of Niagara fonds \(F 1804\)
 - District of Ottawa fonds \(F 1849\)
 - Talbot District fonds \(F 1951\)
 - Township of Trafalgar fonds \(F 1965\)
 - Western District fonds \(F 2007\)
- For other early Ontario census records, check our binder of Ontario Census Returns, 1842-1901 available in the Reading Room and on the Library and Archives Canada website.

- The Archives also holds copies of Genealogical Society of Utah microfilm of censuses for the Township of Binbrook, 1837-1839 (microfilm number: GS 1436) and the Township of Blanshard, 1848 and 1850 (microfilm number: GS 539). This microfilm is available in the Archives' Reading Room and through the Family History Centres of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. For the location of the Family History Centre in your area consult the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints website or call 1-800-346-6044. The Centres may charge for the ordering of the film and will not answer mailed inquiries. Each Centre has different service hours. Always call before visiting.
- An index to the 1848 and 1850 Censuses for the Districts of Huron, Johnstown and Newcastle is available on self-service microfiche in the Archives' Reading Room. The University of Western Ontario's D.B. Weldon Library has the District of Huron 1848 Census on microfilm.
- In addition, militia muster rolls served as county- or province-wide censuses of the adult male population. See Research Guide 226: Militia and Military Records for more information.

Post-1851 Census Returns

- The Archives has microfilm copies of the personal census returns for Canada West/Ontario for 1851-1852, 1861, 1871, 1881, 1891 and 1901 and the 1861 and 1871 agricultural census returns for Canada West/Ontario. The microfilm can also be borrowed through inter-library loan from Library and Archives Canada. The returns are arranged by county, then by town and township.

The Archives of Ontario has not acquired a microfilmed copy of the 1911 census. Microfilm copies can be borrowed through inter-library loan from Library and Archives Canada. Their website has a database of digital images from that census.

Ontario Census Returns, 1842-1901, which is available in the Reading Room's Genealogy Reference Area, lists this microfilm by town and township. This binder is an annotated abstract of Thomas A. Hillman's Catalogue of Census Returns on Microfilm, 1666-1891 / Catalogue des Recensements sur Microfilm, 1666-1891 (Ottawa: National Archives of Canada, 1987); it is available in most libraries and on the Library and Archives Canada website. A separate finding aid, Toronto Census Aid (located in the Reading Room), lists the reels for the census returns for each Toronto ward and includes maps showing ward limits at the time of each census.

- The Archives has microfilm copies of the 1871 Census Returns for Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Check the finding aid listing of the Microfilm of the 1871 Census for Quebec (available in the Reading Room) or the Thomas A. Hillman book (mentioned above); the Hillman book lists the microfilm for all three provinces.
- The personal returns usually record a person's age, country of birth and origin, religion and occupation. The type and the amount of information vary from one census to another. The agricultural returns record the concession and lot, buildings and livestock owned by farmers.

Indexes and Databases for Post-1850 Census Returns

The following indexes are available in the Archives' Reading Room:

- 1851: An index and transcript on microfiche of the census for Middlesex County.
- 1851: The census for Bruce, Grey, Lennox & Addington, and Wellington Counties is indexed in Renie A. Rumpel's Index to the 1851 Census of Canada West (Ontario) (Waterloo, Ontario: Ontario Indexing Services, 2001), 3 vol. This index is available in the Archives' Reading Room's Genealogy Reference Area.
- 1861: The 1861 census for Lennox and Addington County is indexed in Linda Corupe's Index to the 1861 Census of Lennox and Addington Co. (self-published). It is available in the Archives' Reading Room (Call number 929.371359C671).
- 1871: A surname index (head of households) for the 1871 census for all of Ontario has been published by the Ontario Genealogical Society (30 vols., 1986-1992). It is available in the Archives' Reading Room (Genealogy Reference Area) and on the Library and Archives Canada's website.

For the 1851 census and all 1871 to 1911 census, there are online databases of names or digitized images, visit the Library and Archives Canada's website.
