Citing Statutes

The Statutes of Ontario is published at the end of each Legislative Session, usually corresponding to the calendar year. (After 1976, acts were assigned chapter numbers based on the calendar year.)

Each act is given a chapter number for the Legislative Session in which it was passed.

A statute is cited using this format:

Title of the Act*, S.O. year, chapter number, section number, subsection number.

Example:

An Act to Consolidate and Amend the Public Schools Act. S.O.1885, c. 49

- "Statutes of Ontario" is abbreviated as S.O.
- Most statutes have lengthy titles. To save time and space the "short title" is acceptable for citation purposes.
- If there is a need to pinpoint more specifically within an act, the specific section and subsection are cited as well.
 - Example: Forest Fires Prevention Act, S.O. 1930, c. 60, s. 18
- If there is a subsection, the abbreviation is "s.s."

Earlier years of the statutes are often cited by "regnal year". A regnal year is the year of the reign of the monarch. For example the act cited above by calendar year can also be cited in this manner:

An Act to Consolidate and Amend the Public Schools Act. S.O. 48 Vict. c. 49.

(The 48th year of the reign of Queen Victoria, which was 1885.)
